The Opportunity Questions

1. What am I most excited about today?
2. How can I go the “extra mile” for someone today?
3. What am I reading or listening to today that will enlighten me?
4. How can I exercise today to create greater energy?
5. Do I want to ignore these questions and suffer the consequences later?

Dear Dr. Moorjani:

Thank you very much for your letter regarding the St. John's High School news article on my thoughts about the Jesuit School.

I also appreciate you sending me the resume on your son, Deepak. He certainly looks like an outstanding young person. I would suggest that the next time he is in Toledo for the holidays, you ask him to give us a call, as we would be happy to chat with him about his career objectives and aspirations.

Thank you again for your note.

Sincerely,

Southwood J. Morcott

Hi Dee,

I am not feeling well. The call from you was the best thing in my life. I was so surprised to hear from you. It made all the difference in my life. I am going back to Toledo in a few weeks because I have not been feeling well.

I don't know where you are. I don't have your phone number. Can you please tell me your phone number?

I love you. I love you. I love you.

Love Always,
Mom
